WOMAN DENIES SHE SHARED IN $35,000 THEFT

Mathilda French, Pretty Cashier, Says Another Knows More of Clerk Dohm's Embezzlement.

That there were at least two, and possibly half a dozen, women intimate in the life of August Dohm, discharged bookkeeper of Samuel Baumann & Brother, the Sixth avenue furniture dealers, who charge him with embezzlements aggregating $35,000, was learned by the police toda after the arrest of Mathilda French, the attractive little cashjer of the oreek, was held in $2,500 ball, and his concern, to whom Dohm was markedly attentive.

Miss French was arrested as a witness and when taken to Police Head-Dobm's defalcations. She also denied that she was the woman upon whom had a splendid record for honesty at he had lavished all the thousands he stole, and gave Capt. McCafferty the Sherry's and that his own wife had name of another woman, who she declared, could tell a great deal more found and returned to her by the pris-
